Richmonder Drops Dead

FALLS IN STREET NEAR HOME

J. W. Stewart, 55, who conducts a stationery store at 254 Tenth street, dropped dead of heart failure shortly before 8 o'clock last night in front of his home. Sergeant Phil Barry and Officer Kirkpatrick picked the man up and carried him into his home and summoned Dr. Scroggs and Dr. Vestal. Death, however, had placed Stewart beyond the call of medical science.

Stewart, with his wife and son and daughter, came to Richmond from Missouri about a year ago, and started a small store opposite the Tenth street school. He is also survived by a sister.

The remains were removed to the Smallwood undertaking parlors. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

An autopsy will be conducted today.

McDowell Not Fatally Hurt; Physician Says

Will Take Xray of Spine Today

Oliver McDowell, father of Mrs. James T. Oarbett, wife of the prominent Richmond architect, was seriously injured early yesterday morning when he was struck by an automobile driven by Clyde F. Young of Oakland, at San Pablo avenue, not far from McDowell's home. While McDowell's injuries are serious, they are not considered fatal by Dr. U. S. Abbott, the attending physician. An X-ray will be taken today to determine the extent of the injuries to McDowell's back.

With Young at the time of the accident were Dr. Carter of Oakland and two women. The accident occurred at 2:30 o'clock. Young claims that a heavy fog made it impossible to see McDowell until it was too late to stop the machine.

JOE ESOLA TO ARRIVE TODAY

Dave Esola received a radio message from his brother, Joe, who has been in Honolulu for the last six months superintending the construction work that the Standard Oil Co. is having done in that city, stating that he will be home today. The message came from the Ventura, which will arrive in San Francisco today. Esola has recently been raised to superintendent of construction work for the Standard Oil company on this coast.

GARBAGE DEAL IS "EXPLAINED"

John Rosa is a garbage man. He claims that some one attempted to force him to pay $1000 for the privilege of dumping his garbage in the property recently "loaned" by Blake Bros. quarry company to the city. As a result an attempt has been made to "play" the discussion into a sensation. As no money was extorted, and as a satisfactory explanation has been made by all concerned, it is probable that the proposed "sensational" will blow up into a thin trail of smoke.

Discuss Hill Boulevard Meeting Last Night; D. E. Huntsinger Presides

The West Side Commercial Club held a large and very enthusiastic meeting last night in the Washington school. In the absence of Mayor Garrard the affair was presided over by Dr. D. E. Huntsinger, who in all about sixty people were present, amongst them most of the prominent residents of the west side. The project discussed was the proposed boulevard along the bay shore. Mr. Loomis of the Bay Shore company and Mr. Hogg of the Bay View properties addressed the meeting and put up a proposition that looked favorable. It was decided to lay the matter over to a meeting that will take place on next Wednesday week, when Mr. Chapman, the city engineer, will furnish a map covering the project and explain the many points that will come under discussion.

Messrs. C. B. Jones, Clifton Bradley and "Gunga" addressed the meeting, and the matter of the proposed park was entered into. The Women's West Side Improvement Club have lined up on the affair and have interviewed some of the prominent residents of the east side, receiving favorable comments, there being no doubt that the people are ready and anxious for a place of recreation.

Mr. Stidham is the permanent secretary of the West Side club. He has been appointed chairman of the franchise committee of that body, and his colleagues will be announced shortly, when the long-looked-for open space will be a thing that is to materialize in the near future.

Three new members were admitted to the club—H. Price, W. W. Hughes and C. B. Martin.

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO "CLOSE" BARBARY COAST SAYS DISPATCH

(Special to the NEWS.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Pressure from every "pure" county in California is to be brought to bear on San Francisco to make the city close its "Coast houses" whether it wants to or not, according to plans made at the Congress of Reform in the Civic Auditorium today.

Richmond and Oakland, it is understood, suffering financially because of the fact that they "closed down" when San Francisco was "open," will assist both financially and otherwise in making San Francisco "behave."

The Oaklanders and Richmonders as well as the residents of other counties, claim that San Francisco is suffering in "wild dollars" which otherwise would stay at home.

Just what means will be taken to enforce the Red Light Abatement Act in San Francisco was not made public. At first the delegates to the Reform Congress admitted they were puzzled as to just how San Francisco would be made "pure." This morning, however, several of them announced that they "had something up their sleeve."

The biggest factor against reform in San Francisco, the delegates said, was the people themselves. San Francisco did not seem to want to be "closed down," they said. Therefore she is to be disciplined by Los Angeles, Alameda and other counties in the state.

Miss Anna E. Chase declared because San Francisco had voted against the Red Light Abatement law was no reason why this city was privileged to remain "open."

Interviewed by Daily News representatives last night relative to the above dispatch to the Daily News, gave no light on the local subject. While a number admitted that an effort was being made to "close" San Francisco's "coast," it was only part of a general campaign throughout the state, they claimed.

Give 'Em the Ax; Give Etc. Shouts Pastor

And the Secret Follows

The Rev. D. W. Calfee wasn't dignified yesterday. Neither was Judge McClure of Anderson, Ind. And here's the reason why: Judge McClure and the Rev. Calfee are old college "pals," both being members of the class of '99 of DePauw University, Indiana. They met yesterday in San Francisco, the jurist acting as host.

No meeting between college chums is complete without the college yell, and the "quiet" streets in the vicinity of the meeting rang with college songs and yells. Anyway, that's what we were told.

Judge McClure is visiting the Exposition.

BANQUET HELD BY FORESTERS

Following the regular business meeting of Court Richmond No. 8212, Ancient Order of Foresters, in A. O. U. W. Hall last night, a banquet was served by the retiring social committee. The expense of the banquet was taken from the profits of the recent series of whist games held by the order. The retiring committee was composed of J. Dieber, E. J. Miller and E. G. Alexander. The new committee is as follows: G. O. Amadeen (chairman), Frank Jullie and Joe McCarthy.

No Arrangements for Percy Rites

The remains of Arthur Percy, former member of the local police force, who was electrocuted Tuesday night at the plant of the Arctic Ice and Cold Storage company, were yesterday removed to the undertaking parlors of Arthur A. Barber & Co. Funeral arrangements will not be made until word is received from relatives in the East, but it is probable that the funeral will be held Saturday afternoon.

An investigation will be conducted by the coroner.

WRIGHT IS ILL FROM OVERWORK

Contrary to a report published by one of Richmond's "reliable afternoon dailies" yesterday afternoon, Stanley T. Wright, junior member of the furniture firm of Laselle & Wright, is not seriously ill. Wright is confined to his home, 916 Barrett avenue, with a nervous breakdown. His condition is not considered serious and he will be able to resume his duties in a short time.

Dr. U. S. Abbott is the attending physician.

The funeral of C. J. Lambrecht, who died Tuesday night at the home of his son, C. J. Lambrecht, 2355 Castro street, will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the Bert Curry undertaking parlors. The Rev. Guy A. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the services. The remains will then be shipped to Suisun, where the Odd Fellows will conduct services and the remains will be interred in that city.

PLAYGROUND BATTLECRY OF CITY

City Is United for Much Needed Grounds

The campaign of the people of Richmond for playgrounds is meeting with unprecedented success. Plain facts, backed up by sentiment and common sense, are bringing the city to a state of playground enthusiasm. They are discussed in club circles, lodges, homes and in offices. Never before in the history of the city of Richmond has any proposition met with such warm support. There is no quibbling on where the playgrounds shall be. Some favor them in certain localities, but rather than have the matter held up through this source they are to a unit willing to place the playgrounds wherever the majority designates.

DEFENSE SCORES IN OPENING DUEL; RICHARD WILLIAMS AND JAMES SNEE GIVE TESTIMONY

Former Chief of Police Is Grilled by Attorney for Defense

MARTINEZ, Aug. 17.—The trial of Norman H. Matson, charged with criminal libel by Former Chief of Police James P. Arnold, was continued yesterday afternoon to Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Two witnesses for the prosecution had been examined. The jury was completed shortly before noon.

Richard Williams, formerly a director of the Daily News, was the first witness called by the prosecution. He identified the issue of the Daily News that contained the alleged libel and several copies printed before and after.

He was asked by District Attorney T. D. Johnston if he had had any discussions with Matson about the evidence against Arnold prior to the printing of the article. Williams answered that he had, and Johnston asked what was discussed.

The question opened the door wide open for the admission of a large amount of testimony for the defense.

JOHNSTON OVERHAULED.

In the cross-examination Attorney Nathan Coghlan demanded to know what the discussion was about and an objection raised by Johnston was immediately overruled.

Williams then testified he had told Matson that Jess Martin, owner of the notorious dive, the "White House," had told him and Attorney H. J. Wildgrube that she had paid the then Chief of Police Arnold a five per week tribute for "protection"; that her place had been raided at one time because she was a little in arrears; that she had met Arnold and T. Park Jacobs in an Oakland cafe and in the Stag cafe on San Pablo avenue, where she was offered a piece of property on the waterfront of Richmond for $20,000 and that one time bribe money had been passed in a certain cigar store in Richmond.

WILLIAMS ON STAND.

Williams, called by the prosecution, proved an excellent witness for the defense.

James Snee, local grocery clerk, and defeated candidate for the city council at the last election, was next called by the prosecution.

Snee recounted the details of a meeting said to have been held on the night of May 6, just prior to the publication of the Arnold article. He said he had opposed the plan of printing the article.

"One of the men at this meeting," declared Snee, "patted me on the back and said, 'By God, Snee, you're a man!'"

Then, in answer to a question as to what else was discussed, he said: "Well, many things were discussed, pro and con."

Attorney E. McKendie, associated with Coghlan for the defense, pleasantly suggested that the witness relate the "con," and was roundly called down by the district attorney.

Snee, a little flustered, continued. He testified that Terry O. Carmon, candidate at that time for city councilman, and prominent labor man, had profanely declared that they didn't care whether the Arnold story was true or not, that it was good election stuff. Snee was very nervous on the stand.

The examination of Snee was not complete when the court adjourned. Following the completion of the jury yesterday morning, District Attorney Johnston made his opening talk to the jury.

"We will show," he said, "that the Richmond Daily News was run by a little coterie of labor leaders who wanted to rule or ruin. Those who differed with them they forced to leave the city."

WAXES ELOQUENT.

"We will show that a young man cannot come from San Francisco and recklessly smash the reputation of one of our most beloved citizens. "James P. Arnold was a laborer for the Standard Oil for years. He rose to the honored position of chief of police by his own efforts. He was loved and respected by many."

"And we will show that the truth of the charges against him is no justification of the attack, if a malicious motive is shown."

"We will show that prior to the printing of this attack that he was rumored there was graft and that Arnold was said to be involved. We will show that the city council accepted his resignation, despite these rumors, with a recommendation for the excellent way he had conducted his office."

"And I am sure, gentlemen, when the case goes to you that you will free James P. Arnold from shame."

COGHLAN SARCASTIC.

"I had expected eloquence," said Coghlan, "for I have listened to the learned district attorney when both of us were in the State Legislature. I knew that he would make the week long thing."

"Of course the reputation of James P. Arnold is an issue in this case. In the course of this trial we will admit that there were persistent rumors that Arnold had taken graft money. We will admit that the council recommended him, but we will show that there were other reasons for that recommendation. We will place counselmen of Richmond on the witness stand to show that they were not in favor of that resignation. We are going to disclose the investigation made by the council."

"We will show that Arnold permitted the White House, a notorious house of prostitution, to flourish. We will show that he made many visits to the place, that he extorted money."

GRILLS ARNOLD.

"We will show that this creature, this ex-chief of police, who came into this courtroom with a halo around his head and brings with him his wife and his little daughter to excite sympathy for himself, permitted prisoners to be taken from the city jail to be put to work at odd jobs at the White House."

Other witnesses that will appear for the defense are J. A. Jones, Ed. Long, Jean Martin, J. P. Arnold, Mrs. J. P. Arnold, "Billy" Morris.

Long excerpts from the Daily News were read into the record.

THE JURY.

The jurors who will decide the guilt or innocence of Editor Norman H. Matson are:

Christ Erickson, Frank L. Johnson, J. M. Christen, Thaddeus Johnson, Jeremiah Mahoney, C. E. Yates, William Altizer, G. W. Smith, Samuel Compton, Thomas Duane, Joseph Mintz and M. F. Coelho.

JUDGE LINDSEY A LA SOLOMON

"Go home and do the right thing with your wife and two children," Police Judge William Lindsey told Andrew Coveley, arrested yesterday morning by Inspector George Betts on a charge of desertion.

"I'll do it, Judge," returned the erring husband and father and with his wife and two children he left the court room for the family home at 34 Ocean avenue.

HOW ABOUT OUR STANDARD OF LIVING?

"The United States will take the financial scepter out of the hands of London and become the country of rich men, to which all other countries will be in debt," writes H. G. Wells, the noted English novelist. "England will cease to be the fat land of the world. That doubtful privilege of fatness will pass across the Atlantic."

"That does not, however, mean the American common man will be any better off than at present. The rise in prices will probably make him practically worse off, but the American plutocrat will become the financial master of the world."

The plutocratic and conservative newspapers in the United States take Novelists Wells to task for the above prediction, as if the handwriting was not already on the walls of America, so big and so plain that no Daniel is needed to decipher it. They severely inform Novelists Wells that we haven't the English caste system and that public opinion in America is so strong as to compel good living conditions for workmen.

But at the very moment when the smug newspapers are lecturing Wells, along comes the report of the investigators of the United States Commission on Industrial Relations and confounds them—proves that the novelist has the situation sized up absolutely correct.

The Manley report declares that two-thirds of our American workmen are poverty stricken.

Thirty-seven per cent of the wives and mothers of our workmen have to work hard themselves to keep the family going.

Half the wage earning fathers in America make $10 a week or less.

Three or more people occupy every sleeping room in the homes of 37 per cent of our American workmen.

Twenty per cent of our school children are underfed.

Babies of the poor die three times as fast as the babies of the rich.

The rich 2 per cent own 60 per cent of this nation's wealth.

Forty-four families have an income equaling the income of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND WORKINGMEN!

There you have it, Mr. Wells! A caste of rich men in the United States, appropriating the income of the workers, grinding down their families and IMPOSING A SHAMEFUL STANDARD OF LIVING ON THE MASSES!—R.

VETERANS TO MEET

The National Rifle Association of America will participate in the Conference on National Defense, which is to be held in Washington October 4-7, immediately following the Grand Army of the Republic Encampment. It will be of great interest to the veterans who will attend the encampment and the conference.

In the United armies of the Civil War were hundreds of thousands of good shots and thousands of expert marksmen and sharpshooters. Many of these "dead shots" will attend the Washington encampment and will pay particular attention to that section of the National Defense Conference which will consider the training of the citizenry of this country in the use of the military rifle.

Colonel John McElroy, past senior vice commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, says that training in the use of the rifle is one of the most important subjects to be considered at the conference.

The National Rifle Association of America claims to be the oldest and most practical peace society in this country. It was organized in 1871 for the purpose of teaching the citizens of the country how to efficiently handle the army rifle, thus making its citizens capable of becoming efficient volunteers to defend their country in time of need.

This association receives no federal support and its work has been maintained by the donations of patriotically inclined citizens through the taking out of life memberships.

At the present time there are enrolled as members of the National Rifle Association shooting under its rules and regulations, and making annual reports of their work, 500 government rifle clubs, 110 school and 57 college clubs, all training with the military rifle.

PROPERTY OWNERS WERE TOLD OF SEVENTH STREET MONTHS AGO

"Who gets the amount that is saved by cutting down on the specifications?" asks an evening paper at the tail end of an article on street work.

Seventh street has been solemnly exposed as a rotten job.

That may be news to some people. But it certainly is not news to readers of the Daily News. If they will refer to the back files of this paper they will find that the public was told of the skimping out Seventh street when that job was less than half complete.

They will find that property owners were warned against oil put on improperly and of 12-inch curbs where the specifications call for 18-inch curbs.

This paper made enemies by printing a series of illuminating street paving articles some time ago. But the great majority read and believed. The "unearthing of more rotten street work" is no surprise to them.

OPEN FORUM

(Ed. Note.—The Daily News assumes no responsibility for the article appended, and the Daily News does not assume any responsibility for the article appended, and the Daily News does not assume any responsibility for the article appended.)

The Daily News is always open to the public for any discussion of any matter of general interest. The residents of the Pullman district have asked the Daily News to publish the article appended, and the Daily News has no desire to enter into any controversy in this matter.)

We notice an article published in the Oakland Tribune in regard to the Pullman school, in which the statement is made that in view of the fact that it was necessary to start condemnation proceedings in order to acquire title to some of the lots, that the building would not be constructed until some time next year.

We think it might be well to review the history of this matter. If we are correctly advised, the success of the bond election depended upon the vote of the annexed district. This being so, a platform was prepared, endorsed by the members of the Board of Education and also the superintendent of schools of the city of Richmond, and advertised by posters promising $22,000 to the Pullman section for the purchase of a site and the erection of a school building, if they would vote for the bonds.

We are advised that members of the Board of Education, also the superintendent of schools, made it their business to hold meetings in the Pullman section, and urged the people to vote for the bonds, promising them that as a reward for their support the consideration of $22,000 of the very first money available from the sale of the bonds in event they should carry.

The first allotment of bonds were sold and the money expended elsewhere, and it has been now almost one year since the second allotment of $75,000 was sold, and still there seems to be no real sincere disposition on the part of the board to erect a school here.

It was known on the last of March of this year that one of the owners in the block would not submit a lot for sale, and as they were needed, if the building was to be started upon ground to which the city had title. We are advised that the district attorney's office was ordered by the board to start condemnation proceedings. Ten weeks later this action was started, the delay being occasioned, as your committee has been advised, for the reason that the action being a very novel one in the history, it took about ten weeks of profound consultation on the part of this branch of our county government to get to the bottom of this complicated procedure. And incidentally look after a collection agency, which we all know is a very important adjunct of the county attorney's office. And by the way, this committee has learned upon a little investigation that the first name of one of the parties defendant to this action is Paul instead of Pane. This error appears in the adv. for service by publication, which has now been running for eight weeks in a local paper. This mistake could have been avoided if the same care had been exercised in this as any attorney would and should give to any matter pertaining to private business. As the name of this contract purchaser of these lots is and has been for the past two years of record in the office of the New Richmond Land company, and we do know that it is necessary to bring this party into court in order to get title to the property that service on Pane will not give the court jurisdiction over the person of Paul.

Well, what's the difference. If they find that it is imperative to get service on this party all that is necessary is to rub it out and in the course of two or three months guess again. It will only cost the county $15 or $20 anyway, and we can console ourselves when they advise us that they get theirs in this county business anyway, and they have been very, very busy in "taking a bond of fate" in relation to their collection agency.

The people of Pullman can wait. They really "don't need a school" anyway. Well, we would like to say this: We of the Pullman district have performed our part of the contract, and it is right for us to have a school when we were induced two years ago under promises to vote for the bonds; it is more than right now. If it were wrong then, we can think of no words in the English language strong enough to create the parties who bribed the people by promises to vote for the bonds. If it was right then, the school should be now constructed, and it could and would have been built ready for occupancy at the present time if those who have the matter in hand had taken hold of the work as the oath of office requires of public officials. This applies with equal force to the salaried and non-salaried official. As we understand, it comes with bad grace from an official who assumes the responsibility to plead office to the fact that he is getting nothing for his services. There is always a way out.

LINCOLN TEAM IS WINNER OVER SAN PABLO

The Lincoln Grammar school team defeated the San Pablo grammar school yesterday at Cheek's grounds by the score of 6 to 4. The game was closely contested throughout and it wasn't until the last San Pablo had perished at the plate that the game was decided. Ferguson and O'Brien acted as battery for the winners and Sago and Cahrs: and Lyle officiated for the losers. Another game will be played again today by the two teams.

J. S. Shaw of Oakland and owner of considerable property on the west side, was a business visitor to that section of the city yesterday afternoon.

Kid Smiley and Queenie Miller to Perform in Main Event

Tomorrow evening the show of the Pinole Athletic Club will be held in that place. Busses will leave Eleventh street and Macdonald avenue at 7 and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Promoter Manuel Lewis has made special arrangements for the handling of the crowd and it is expected that the pavilion will be taxed to its capacity. Lewis has certainly lined up a sweet looking card. The main event will find Kid Smiley and Queenie Miller trading wits. These two lads are regular human dynamos. They just naturally pile in and once the bell rings there is no stalling. This is the kind of work the local fans are strong for and they can always rest assured that when M. Smiley's handsome physiognomy appears in the arena something is going to happen.

Miller is no boob by a long way and he should make the Kid step around a few. However, in our humble estimation, Miller doesn't carry heavy enough artillery to send Smiley to the land of Nod. Miller thinks he does, and the fans will want to be present to see if Mr. Miller's thinker is working right.

Young Butch and Frank Brazil, local products, are working hard and expect to give each other an interesting time of it. Like Smiley, Butch and Brazil are a couple of busy bees when they get started and as there is considerable rivalry between the two boys, some real hang up action should be in evidence.

There will be a large delegation of San Pablo fans present to see Kid Thompson of that burg line up with Young Nabisco of Oakland. Nabisco has had considerable experience and has put up some great battles in Oakland. Thompson has been in the ring on but several occasions and has yet to learn many of the rudiments of the glorious game of self-defense. If Thompson uses his dome, he should clean the Cracker kid up in a couple of rounds. The San Pablo boy has a nice Kayo valentine in his mitt and if he could get it down where he could use it without first sending out a wireless to his opponent, he would be a hard man to beat.

Johnny Duffy and Tom Sheer of Oakland will participate in the special event, while Plug Milne and another young man will hook up in another bout. A curtain raiser will also be on the boards.

Jimmy Slivas of our fair city will referee, and Mr. Cornelius O'Hara will officiate as announcer.

templating riding the old jitney chaser out of the burg on a rail. Denny would probably not object if they gave him the rail.

Anyway, friends and fellow citizens, there should be a large attendance at Sunday's pastime. It is important to the city of Richmond: it is worth sixteen times the price and it will prove that Richmond is entitled to the title of champion.

Let's all go and make it a big crowd.

Willie Luce had a heart-to-heart talk with the boys yesterday and every member of the club is out to win. They are confident, but not over-confident. They'll win, if we know anything about baseball, and we'll admit we don't know a helluva lot.

Sebastopol apple raisers will be put en masse when the gong rings for the match. Joe Thomas, the handsome manager of the land of cider, writes that fully 2500 home town citizens will be present at the festivities.

The Richmond Concert Band will attend the local delegation and will dispense the syncopeated stuff on the trip to and from Sebastopol. They will also hand out some moonsh at the grounds. The Apple Show, which ends Sunday at Sebastopol, is worth the price of the excursion. There, there is a baseball match; an excursion; music, and a bunch of other features.

It looks like curtains for Thomas' gang. If Richmond wins, as we certainly will, the club will once more be the undisputed champions of the Big Four. Denny J. Healey and his bunch of Petalumaans are about out of the running. Denny is in dutch with his players as well as with the fans and many of the latter are con-
